

Lightning bolt knocks cottage

A bolt of lightning which struck with a tremendous force during a severe thunder storm at Haliburton on Monday evening did considerable damage to a cottage and completely demolished a cabin closeby on Lake Kashagawigamog.

The lightning hit the cottage of Mr and Mrs Elwin Robertson of Haliburton, which is located this side of the Hunter's Horn, with such force that every window was blown out, one of the bedroom doors came off its hinges and most of the furniture was turned upside down.

Mr and Mrs Robertson were in the cottage at the time, but managed to get out. Mrs Robertson had to be taken to the Red Cross Hospital in Haliburton for observation and stitches as she was cut by flying glass.

Observers claim it was a miracle they came out of it alive.

The cabin next to the cottage was also owned by the Robertsons.

Mr Doug Kenning of Haliburton who also has a cottage near the Robertsons was knocked to the floor by the impact of the explosion.

Mr Ron Tyler of the Haliburton Air Service located across the lake heard the explosion around 7 pm and immediately notified the Haliburton Fire Department which was soon at the scene, but luckily nothing caught on fire.

All the wiring in the cottage was burnt out.

Village going to the dogs

The village of Haliburton seems to be over run by dogs this summer. There is no doubt about it there here, there and everywhere. In other words they are a general nuisance.

The general public are getting up in arms over these dogs which are in people's yards and gardens and at the Rotary Beach where children are swimming. We had several calls from irate citizens over the weekend and we understand that some of the council members also heard complaints. Yes it is time some action was taken. According to municipal officials the by-law clearly states that dogs are not allowed to run at large at anytime. If they are not tied up the offenders will be charged.

We understand that several charges have been laid and more are pending. Two more charges were laid on Monday.

The swimming area at the Rotary Beach has been over run with dogs this summer and we understand that a sign is to be posted in that area telling people that dogs are not allowed at the Rotary Beach.

Notice

Although Monday September 2 is Labor Day and a holiday we wish to inform our readers and advertisers that the Echo office will remain open and it will be business as usual.

Many floats in Minden parade follow Centennial Year theme

What a great Fair! Two afternoons of grand weather not quite as hot as it had been earlier in the week.

The Parade had a variety of floats, cars, and costumes many with the Centennial Year in mind.

The exhibits in the Fair building were excellent, this is where you see what can be grown in our County whether grain, vegetables, fruit, flowers or plants. The Baking sure looked good but it was no touching. The crafts, photography and handwork were excellent. We must not forget to mention the Junior and School Exhibits these showed that young people will carry on when seniors retire. There were horses, cattle and sheep there as well as ponies. Sunday afternoon the Rotarians had Funky Field Day with races for all ages.

Entertainment at the Fair included Ronnie Prophet who gave three shows, two at the Fair and one at the Arena on Saturday night which also featured Aquarius a lively group, good for dancing.

Sunday afternoon, Ronnie gave a show after the Switzer Brothers. The crowd were appreciative of all the entertainers and gave Ronnie Prophet a standing ovation at the Dance Saturday night. Besides these entertainers, the Amateur Contest, Nail Driving Contest and Fiddle Contest all came from the main Stand with M.C. Willis McNeill. Oldest people at the Fair were Mrs B. J. Walker and Colin McMillan. The Midway had Rides, games, and food booths very pleasing for the younger crowd. Also the Horse Drawing was great, showing what horses can do. Nowadays, machinery replaces them but who can pet a tractor. Altogether this Fair was great for young and old. There should be the feeling of "well done" in the hearts of all committees for a very successful Fair.

Ronnie Prophet, the entertainer was very obliging, being a country boy, we noticed he had several rides on ponies. He was kept busy signing autographs and we wonder how some of his pictures came out, as he often would make a face just when you were ready to take this. His summer show for T.V. was taped before July 12 and he couldn't bring the Puppets from this as they belonged to CBC. If you enjoyed his T.V. show drop a line to CBC as he said there is a half-hour spot open in January. He also showed how he gets the echo effect in this songs, rather interesting that he developed this electronic device himself. He is just one of our Canadians who has been successful but gave the Minden Fair something extra.

Rail excursion planned for Saturday September 28

The Upper Canada Railway Society is pleased to announce a 250-mile round trip diesel rail excursion to Haliburton.

"The Haliburton Highlander" will depart Toronto Union Station at 8:00. The route takes us through the heart of Scenic Haliburton County, famous for its splendid display of autumn colours.

There will be several interesting movie runpasts and photo stops featuring many stations with architectural qualities of yesterday. Special activities will mark the Centennial of Haliburton County and the town of Fenelon Falls.

Tickets, priced at $13.95 adult, $7.75 children (5-12), and $2.25 infants, are available at C. N. Union Station, by mail from Box 242, Station "M", Toronto 21, and after September 1 at Eaton's Special Attractions Offices.

Kinmount Fair action starts Friday night

The Kinmount Fair "The Fair With The Forward Look" is all set to go this Saturday and Sunday August 31 and September 1.

Headlining the Grandstand show this year both Saturday and Sunday from Nashville Tennessee Grand Ole Opry stars Little Jimmy Dickens and Sunday Sharpe. Another highlight of this year's big event will be the Red Cap Aerobic team, direct from the CNE in their spectacular Air Stunt Show at 5 p.m. on both days.

The big fair actually starts on Friday night with the Queen of the Fair Contest and children's sports at 6:30 p.m.

On Saturday morning at 11:30 a.m. its the Livestock Show and then at 12:30 p.m. the monster parade will get underway. The amateur contest is at 2 p.m. for all talent. Other Saturday afternoon attractions will be the Grandstand Show with Jimmie Dickens, Midway, Games, Attractions, rides, Trials of Speed on track, Horse Judging in Ring, Horse Drawing Contest (Heavy Class 4:30 p.m.) Air Aerobic Show at 5 P.M., Antique Steam Engine and Power Units on Display and a Saturday Evening dance at 9 p.m.

On Sunday the Exhibit Hall will open at 1 p.m. and the Grandstand Show is at 1:30 p.m. Also on tap for Sunday will be a Pony Show, Horse Drawing Contest, Air Aerobic Show and many other events.

The admission price is Adults $1.50, Public School Children 50 cents, PreSchool Children free. Cars 75 cents.

Yes it is the Kinmount Fair this coming weekend and in most peoples' opinion it is the best small town Fair between here and Toronto. Something for everyone - the show where you get your money's worth. Don't Miss It.

Gregory will talk to Rotary

Jim Gregory, general manager of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League will be the guest speaker when the Rotary Club of Haliburton hold their weekly meeting at the United Church to-night (Thursday).

Jim, along with Wren Blair, owners of the Haliburton Hockey Haven and is well known in the area and all of his friends are looking forward to meeting him again and to listen to a very interesting talk on his favourite subject which is hockey.

We expect that Jim will be speaking on pro hockey and he will likely be giving us the low down on what we can expect from the Toronto Maple Leafs this coming hockey season.

Mistaken identity

It has come to the notice of this newspaper that some people have nothing better to do than telephone the residence of Mr. Harry Fountain of Stanhope Sheet Metal to see where he is. This has caused the family untold misery. The article which appeared in our newspaper a couple of weeks ago distinctly stated that the Harry Fountain being sought in connection with missing money was a former cook at the Ol' Barn. The Mr. Harry Fountain of Stanhope Sheet Metal had his sheet metal business in this area long before the Ol' Barn existed. Mr. Harry Fountain of Stanhope Sheet Metal is a fine upstanding citizen. He is married with five children and he has never been a member of the organization which reported missing money. So come on, people, let us show a little consideration for others, and stop this needless pestering of the Fountain family.

... where life is living - for everyone

News Letter

We just want to remind everyone here that the Haliburton County Centennial Homecoming Weekend will be held on September 27-28-29, 1974. The invitation is out to all former residents - all summer residents and our visitors to come back at this time to Haliburton County. This will be your opportunity to come and see the Highlands in living color. So come on along and celebrate with us.

At their weekly meeting held on Monday night, August 19 the Minden Rotary Club members their wives and workers at their Carnival were treated to a delicious supper followed by entertainment.

A good number from here attended the 4th Annual Beef B-B-Q and dance at the Kinmount Fair Grounds on August 17th. It was sponsored by the Victoria-Haliburton Progressive Conservative Association.

In the Highlands of Haliburton in past tourist season you could always count on the fact that after August 15 business seemed to fall off considerably. According to many local business people this year seems to be an exception and business is holding up very well.

The Canadian Exhibition is in full swing and as usual many people from the County have made their annual visit to the Ex.

The floodlights at the Haliburton Ball Park have proven to be a great asset for the community and to the ball clubs from all over the county. It is really nice to be able to attend a ball game in the cool of a summer evening.

August is a bad month for putting you into a trance at the wheel, says the Ontario Safety League. The hot sun, hypnotic effect of road glare, the nudging of fatigue can all combine to form a real accident hazard. Don't wait until some emergency wakes you up without much time to get that brake working. Stay wide awake and alert every minute you're behind the wheel.

Most of the boys' and girls' camps in the area have pulled out and this means that the holidays for 1974 are over and the new school term will soon be underway. It seems that the summer vacation just gets started and then it is all over. The season seems to be getting shorter every year. Or maybe it is just our imagination.

All roads will lead to Kinmount for the annual Kinmount Fair this coming Saturday and Sunday, August 31 and September 1. As usual another great Fair has been lined up and if you have never attended the fair at Kinmount don't miss it this year as they have one of the best fairs in either Victoria or Haliburton County.

The labor day holiday weekend is coming up. Traffic will be very heavy so drive with care and enjoy the last big weekend of the summer season.

Sports with Cliff Burke

Gull River downs Pontypool 12-3

After dropping the second game of their best of three OASA Intermediate C Play-off series with Pontypool 12-3, Gull River Bulldogs took the series on Monday evening in Haliburton 5-2.

Rick Hartwick was the difference in this game for Gull River. Rick allowed two runs (one on an error) on three hits, walked two and fanned eleven in leading his team into the Semi-finals against Port Perry.

Cliff Burke opened the scoring for Gull River, when he doubled in the first inning, took second on Neil Burk's single and scored on another single by George Nichols. Rick Hartwick made it 2-0 in the second when he singled and came all the way home on a single to right field by Gary McKnight.

Pontypool scored in the top of the third to close the gap to 2-1, but this was short lived as George Nichols singled in the bottom of the inning, took second on a past ball and then stole third and home on two Pontypool errors. Gull River went up 5-1 in the sixth on Rick Hartwick's double and a single by Neil Burk followed by another solid double by Craig Stamp. Pontypool added their second run in the seventh on the Builders only error of the game on a throw from the outfield.

Pontypool pitcher Jim Stinson pitched a fine game in a losing cause, giving up twelve hits, walked one and struck out ten.

STAMP WINS SEMI-FINAL OPENER

Craig Stamp, although wild at times, hurled the best game he's pitched in three weeks on Tuesday evening in Haliburton, when Gull River held on in the ninth to win the first game of the OASA Zone 3 semi-finals, 5-4 over Port Perry.

Craig was locked in a pitchers duel with Port's Wanamaker until the bottom of the eighth inning when the Builders bats finally came to life.

With the score 2-1 in favor of Port Perry, Gull River came to bat in the eighth with Neil Burk the first Gull River batter. Neil started things off with an infield single. George Nichols followed with another single and Craig Stamp drew a walk. Paul Sisson then brought Neil in with the tying run on a sacrifice fly to left. George and Craig moved up on a wild pitch and both scored on Jim Burk's hard single up the middle. Bob Austin and Gary McKnight then singled to load the bases and Cliff Burke scored Jim from third on an infield hit.

Although the score was 5-2 in favour of Gull River, the Port never gave up. The first batter drew a walk, the next batter popped to the infield. The Builders got the next batter on a fielders choice, two out. However, the next batter walked the next two singled to score one run, 5-3, then an infield error allowed another run in with men on first and second. Craig got the final batter to ground to short where Gull River Short stop Neil Burk outraced the runner from second to third for the force out and gave Gull River the opener of the semi-finals.

Stover wins golf classic

Ron Stover of the Royal Canadian Golf and Country Club, Markham playing excellent golf captured top honours in the Second Annual Haliburton Golf Classic Invitational Tournament recently held at Lakeside Golf Club, West Guilford, Ontario.

Charlie Stover a summer resident of Eagle Lake, and a member of South Pines Golf and Country Club, North Carolina, finished in the number two position one stroke behind his son Ron. The father and son battle for the championship award wasn't decided until the final few holes of the tournament.

Don and Ken Patry, another father and son entry, from Eagle Lake placed fifth and sixth in the tournament standings with Don beating his son by a number of strokes.

Ross Patterson playing out of Quarry Bay Golf and Country Club of Orillia, Ontario finished in third position, followed by last year's tournament champion big 'Mike' Marshman of Oakville Golf and Country Club.

John Gouett of Peterborough, and Bill McCallum of Erin Heights Golf and Country Club, Erin, Ontario finished in the seventh and eighth positions five strokes off the pace set by the tournament leader Ron Stover.

Next year's Golf Classic promises to be bigger and better with an expanded field of good golfers from across the province being invited to participate in the tournament, and an extension of this year's prizes and awards along with an expansion of the annual tournament dinner.

Ken and Judy Patry hosts for this year's tournament are to be congratulated for the great efforts they put forth into making this tournament a memorial event for all participants.

The next game in this series will be played Sunday at 8:30 pm in Port Perry, with the third if necessary back in Haliburton on Tuesday at 8:30.

STOUFFEVILLE ZONE 3 MIDGET C CHAMPIONS

After watching Stouffville completely dominate their game with Vasey's on Thursday evening in Haliburton, I can see no way that this team cannot go all the way to the Ontario Championship this year.

Our local boys were soundly thrashed 14-0 as Stouffville played errorless ball. Stouffville pitcher Mike McDonald tossed a one-hitter at Vasey's while striking out eight and walking two. This is just one of five pitchers this team can throw at the opposition.

Vasey's didn't help their own cause much as they committed thirteen errors in this game. Pitchers Tim Bain and Barry Shaw gave up fourteen runs on fourteen hits and ten walks.

Stouffville won the opener of this series in Stouffville on Tuesday evening 13-6. They are now OASA Zone 3 Champions and now move on to the All-Ontario Midget C Quarter-Finals against either Smithville or Jordan.

1974 SENIOR ALL STAR TEAMS

For the first time the fans have had the opportunity of picking the All star teams for the Haliburton Inter-County Senior softball league. Although the response was not as great as would have been expected, there were enough ballots to get a good idea who the fans want on their teams.

The Most Valuable Player for 1974 went to West Guilford's Paul Sisson followed closely by Gull River's Neil Burk. The Rookie of the Year was unanimous, Gull River's Al Trepanier.

Centennial Corner

DORSET

Nestled among the hills and lakes at the far north-western corner of Sherborne Township on Trading Bay of Lake of Bays (once called Fork Lake) is the village of Dorset. In 1859 it was known as Cedar Narrows, then as Colebridge after one of the first families, and in 1883 the Post Office, located on the site of the Hugh McEachern home, was registered as Dorset.

Mr. Francis Harvey operated the first Trading Post, trading with the Chippawa Indians from Bigwin Island. Logging was the main industry, with the first saw mill water operated and owned by J. B. Shrigley on the Hollow River. The first steam-powered mill was opened just east of the highway bridge in 1894 by Angus MacKay, in whose family name it remained for 50 years. Hollow or Kawagama Lake was called by the Indians "Kowiambejigawagamog Lake" meaning Lake of Many Sounds.

One of the present main attractions for the thousands of visitors is the Scenic Lookout on "The Mountain". Atop this is a Lookout Tower, stretching up 100 feet and looking out over 310 square miles of rolling, tree-covered hills and valleys and down over Lake of Bays 465 feet below. The steel tower cabin is reached by 118 steps with several observation platforms at intervals in the structure.

This article is considerably condensed from an interesting and detailed history of early names, buildings and development written for the Centennial Corner by Mrs. John (Eldred) MacKay of Dorset, and enquiries about copies of the complete two-page history should be addressed to the Clerk-Treasurer, Townships of Sherborne, McClintock and Livingstone, at Dorset.

Wilberforce is hit by a population explosion

A gigantic population explosion occurred in Wilberforce on Saturday August 17 when people poured in from all directions to begin two days of fun.

Centennial festivities, under the sponsorship of the Townships of Monmouth, Cardiff and the Improvement District of Bicroft, got under way with a splendid parade. Perfect weather conditions provided an excellent setting for the event.

Crowds lining the main street in pleasant anticipation were not disappointed when the procession appeared led by the fine fire-fighting equipment of the Monmouth Fire Dept. Then came the floats, the funny clowns, the Brownies and Girl Guides marching smartly in their trim uniforms. Music was supplied by the ever-popular Haliburton Pipe Band. The drum majorettes, brightly stepping to music and flashing their batons were from West Guilford. Don Foster's clown troop of Belleville provided much of the fun and entertainment for the young folk with their clowns, miniature train and variety of amazing vehicles.

The floats showed great originality. The designers should be proud of the results of their efforts. They were all winners. Selected by the judges as the finest were: Alex Bowers, Wild Life; Ron Mumford, Centennial; Mel Croft, Advertising; Karl Tallman, Comedy; Figure Skating, Clubs.

Now began the fun of the day and there was something for everyone. The kids gathered in the hall field where amusements were set up with a Ferris wheel and various other attractions readily available to keep active youngsters busy. The Monmouth Fire Dept. provided Hot dogs and hamburgers while members of the Figure Skating Club were kept busy dishing out ice cream. Minor Hockey supporters sold pop.

In the Firehall Bingo was the drawing card serviced by the firemen and in the adjoining club room some of the busiest activity of the day took place when great crowds invaded the area to purchase home baking. In no time at all one hundred and fifty pies, dozens of loaves of bread not to mention cookies and cakes, were sold to avid buyers. These had been provided by ladies of the Community. Later, tea and refreshments were served. The proceeds from this event were donated to World Vision. One of the many workers, Hilda Clark, helped greatly in the success of this venture. Hilda also boosted the Centennial day by appearing on CHEX Television with an outline of the coming events.

Across the road in the Arena the Wilberforce Lumber and Veneer Co., in co-operation with the Forest Products Accident Prevention Association, provided a display showing many interesting products being produced in the area. They also used a booth in the Ball Park for wood-carving exhibits. Also in the Arena were games of chance such as the popular Crown and Anchor game, these provided by members of the Legion Br. 624.

For the young and romantic two swarthy fortune tellers predicted lucky events of the future.

Jack Marshall from Peterborough was the man who entertained so well on the piano.

Of great popularity was the Amateur Contest. Crowds of people gathered for this event. Providing music for the toe-tapping was Frank Lahey and his orchestra from Lakefield. The winners of the Contest were: 1. Patricia MacKey, R. R. 3, Bancroft; 2. Ron Carr, Toronto.

The Centennial Committee Beer Garden was well attended as a place to relax and have friendly conversation.

Saturday wound up with the biggest dance this area has ever seen. Beginning with a Beauty Contest sponsored by the Paudash Tourist Association in which there were over thirty contestants.

The winners of the Beauty Contest were as follows: 1. Barbara Gangle, Sponsored by Miss Davies Marine; 2. Deanna Bates, Sponsored by Keith Real Estate; 3. Brenda Peel, Sponsored by Peel Auto Body.

Music for the dance was provided by Man of Note, an orchestra from Belleville. They were well received. For the first time in its history the Arena seemed too small for the number of visitors. Everyone had a great time. A dinner followed the dance and all received centennial mugs. Almost two thousand of these mugs were dispensed over the weekend.

Early next morning the Legion presented a pancake breakfast. Hundreds of people filed in for the mouth-watering repast of pancakes, sausages, coffee etc.

At one o'clock the Monmouth Library opened its doors to waiting crowds who had come to see the display of Arts and Crafts.

Haliburton Rotary Club addressed by Bruce Laing

District 701 Governor Bruce Laing of Orillia paid his annual visit to the Haliburton Rotary Club recently. He spoke on the subject of "Renew the Spirit of Rotary" in which he gave the members his impressions of the meaning of Rotary.

Co-Chairmen David Bishop and Rick Poole have the Rotary members busy these days trying to put it altogether for the big Festacolor coming up on Saturday, September 28. The big event will be more family oriented Festacolor this year.

Last Thursday night following the regular Rotary meeting at the United Church the members all headed for the Rotary beach to help work on the landscaping around the new tennis court. Art Ward of the tennis court committee tells us that they are trying

The Library Committee took part in the proceedings. Lyn Storey showed some of the beautiful films of wild life in the area, made by Ron. Mrs Olive Atkinson demonstrated rug making and Pat Barnes provided refreshments to visitors assisted by members of the Girl Guides. Greatly enjoyed were displays of old documents and pictures of Tory Hill and surrounding country. Paintings and antiques were on view from the 1800s.

Very much admired were quilts made by members of the community. Demonstrations of spinning, quilt-making and pottery making proved most interesting. Meanwhile back in town was the popular horse-drawing contest. Hundreds were on hand to cheer the winners. Popular judge of the event was MP Bill Scott.

Winners in the Heavy Class were: 1. Mac McGillivray, 2. Cliff Manion, 3. Victor Cox.

Light Class: 1. Murray Cowen, 2. Jerry Berry, 3. Jim Chynoweth.

Pony Class: 1. Charles Parks, 2. Charles Mackey, 3. Tom Parks.

Some folks preferred the Penny Sale provided by the Minor Hockey sponsors. This was a most successful event and was held in the snack bar region of the arena.

The Brownies and Girl Guides provided a delicious meal of fish and chips and were kept busy through the day.

The final big event of two great days of celebration was the singing of the Centennial Choir from Haliburton led by the popular Bill Glidden. This provided a fine ending to a glorious week-end.

Members of the participating Municipal Councils extend thanks to all who helped in any way to make this such a successful celebration. With an additional thank you to our master of ceremonies Jack Gedney and to Sterling and Kay Mather and Bruce and Enid Tennant who came from Orono to work with us.

to line up some good tennis players in Toronto to come up and show everyone the finer points of the game.

Tennis Anyone? Well if you are interested in playing tennis your opportunity has arrived.

The new tennis court constructed by the Rotary Club of Haliburton at Rotary Beach is up and the lines have been painted on and the nets are up.

The Echo was just informed that the two new courts will be ready for tennis action this weekend. They were put there for your enjoyment and we hope that the local citizens as well as our summer visitors will get some real good sporting pleasure at the local tennis court.

Tennis is a popular sport these days all over Ontario and we hope that it will catch on here in the Highlands.

Bodmore-Fulling wed in Kingsview United

Judith-Anne Fulling became the bride of Wm. Steven Bodmore on July 27 at Kingsview United Church with Rev. Ferguson officiating.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr and Mrs Ross Fulling of Oshawa and Portage Lake.

The groom is the son of Mr and Mrs Wm. Findlay of Haliburton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of organza over taffeta, styled with a high neckline with seed pearls and French lace trim. Her headpiece was a floral band carrying a chapel train with appliques of French lace. She carried a cascade of pink carnations, red roses, stephanotis and baby's breath.

Janette Pannekoek was maid of honour.

The bridesmaids were Debbie Deeks of Whitby, Kim Follett of Oshawa friends of the bride. Christine Haineault of Ajax cousin of the bride. Maurine Haineault of Ajax, cousin of the bride, was ring bearer.

Best man was Gary Bailey of Haliburton, Ontario.

Ushers were Lew Dummitt of Haliburton, brother-in-law of the groom, Dan Fulling, brother of the bride Lee Stamp of Haliburton, friend of the groom.

The Oshawa Shrine Club was the setting for the reception. The happy couple honeymooned in Niagara Falls and area and on their return will reside on Lakeview Street in Haliburton.

Guests attended from Toronto, Mississauga, Ajax,

Whitby, Haliburton, West Guilford and Oshawa.

Prior to her marriage to Steven Bodmore, Judith-Anne Fulling was honored by several showers.

Mrs. Camilla Haineault, 30 Tudor St. Ajax, aunt of the bride, hosted a miscellaneous shower at which relatives and friends attended from Toronto, Oshawa and Ajax.

A miscellaneous shower in the form of a wine and cheese party was held at the home of the maid of honour, Janette Pannekoek, 155 Grandview St. Oshawa.

A Jack and Jill shower party was held at the home of Mr and Mrs Gary Bailey, best man and his wife of Harmony Rd. Haliburton.

A small dinner party was hosted by the mother of the bride elect, Mrs. Ross Fulling. The bridesmaids assisted with the wrapping of wedding cake and were presented with gifts from the bride later in the evening.

Loan announced

Industry and Tourism Minister Claude Bennett has announced Eastern Ontario Development Corporation loans totalling $515,520 to eight companies.

Willow Beach Cottages of Haliburton, received an EODC Tourist loan of $49,000 to improve facilities of their housekeeping cottages. These cottages are located on Kashagawigamog Lake.

Things we would like to know

With the exception of possibly one service station we would like to know why the price of gasoline is higher in Haliburton and Minden than in any other place in Ontario. If in doubt ask anyone who travels around.

It is just about time that the museum committee in Haliburton started to do something about the parking situation on Park Street in front of the museum. Cars are parking right out on the road and at times one or more on both sides and one has to squeeze through to get by. It is just about time that these cars parked somewhere else or that the authorities started to tow them away.

When is Haliburton going to start to get some police protection and what we mean by this is OPP officers out of their cars walking the streets. Why should a town of this size be without protection at various times while we wait for a cruiser to come up from Minden. The local people are starting to get upset and it is high time that Haliburton had an OPP office with men stationed here.

How long is the Laundromat in Haliburton going to be closed? This building being closed is sure a blackeye on the village and everyone who used this service are now forced to go out of town to another laundromat. Haliburton is losing hundreds of dollars with this facility out of order.

And finally what about the vandalism we are having here. It is about time that the people wrecking things around here were brought to court and some action taken against them. It seems funny to us that you practically have to put a guard on around the clock to protect public property.

Wilberforce citizens help community prosper

Our hats this week are off to the progressive citizens of the community of Wilberforce. When they make up their minds to do something it is done. The village in the past few years has come a long way and it wasn't that long ago that it was a quiet place but now thanks to the forward look of some of its energetic citizens it has turned into a thriving community.

Wilberforce now boasts an arena with artificial ice, a new bank, an L.C.B.O. store, a new fire hall with a good fire department and many new business establishments. We could go on and on.

Known as the Snowmobile Centre of Ontario how can we ever forget the successful Snowmobile Rallies that were held in that community. It was tops in Ontario. Later on they came out with an annual Fireworks Display that drew people from miles around.

Last weekend topped it all off when the Centennial Celebrations were held there on Saturday and Sunday and what a success this event turned out to be. Both days were filled with fun and excitement and thousands turned out for their parade which featured 40 floats and marching units. They had help on this one from the municipalities of Bicroft and Cardiff.

So to the progressive citizens of Wilberforce we say keep up the good and may your community prosper.

Meter man only doing his duty

When local merchants and their employees and other local citizens continued to park their cars and trucks on the main street of Haliburton all day, six days a week it was impossible for visitors coming to town to get a parking spot.

In light of this the local council a few years ago decided to put in parking meters to remedy this situation. Whether we like them or not they are here and they are nothing new as many towns and villages have these meters. It is a way of life and something that we will have to live with.

During the summer months Craig Sproats has been employed as meter man and to write out parking tickets. He has been doing an excellent job in carrying out his duties.

We understand that on two occasions this past summer he has been molested by people who got hot under the collar when they were faced with paying a parking ticket.

It is hard for us to understand why people would take it out on this boy. He did not pass the parking by-law, he is only being paid to enforce it. If he does not carry out these duties he will be released from this job and someone else will take over. He is only doing his duty.

So to everyone who violates the parking by-law don't go off the deep-end but admit that you are in the wrong and pay the fine. In most cases it is only $1.00

Letter to the editor

To the Editor:

Haliburton may need more advertising for winter business and less on summer promotion but that is still just for the business men such as storekeepers, lodges, snowmobile associations, hotels, motels, what about the average daily labourer. Does it not matter about them.

The county is in need of "FACTORIES" where the ordinary man or woman can work. So why not let the tourists look after themselves for a while and look after the ones in Haliburton County who built the place up to where it is now.

If only a few of the little guys could have a little more say and get some more work around here there may be more people around to help out with the winter businesses.

I am only one in this county talking for many who feel the same way but sit back and say nothing - please folks get busy and help us out so many of the young people who were born and raised here and got their education here won't have to leave as soon as they are through school.

So let us talk more about "FACTORIES" and less about Tourists.

Yours truly,
A Steady reader

Come for Homecoming weekend

The invitation is out to all former residents - summer residents and our visitors - to come back to the Haliburton County Centennial Homecoming weekend.

Plans for the big weekend which will be September 27-28-29 have been going on for weeks and many activities have been planned for a really big homecoming in this our Centennial year.

On Saturday, September 28 The Firemans Fall Ball will be in full swing at Wilberforce while in Minden it will be The Moonshine Festival. In Haliburton it is the Rotary Festacolor - 74 with activities and events all through the day. A color special train from Toronto will be coming to Haliburton on this same day with about 600 people aboard who will be here to join in the festivities.

On Sunday September 29th it will be the Color Fly In and Beef Bar-B-Q at the Stanhope Air Port featuring the Carling Red Cap Aerobatic Team.

So as you can see this is a great opportunity for everyone to come back to Haliburton County for the Centennial Homecoming Weekend so why not come back and celebrate with us and see the Highlands in Living Color.

A royal welcome is awaiting you here. The red carpet will be yours and we will be looking forward to seeing you.

BILL SMILEY

SMILEY KNOWS WHEN HE'S GOT A GOOD THING

Last week, faithful readers, if there are any left, followed the enthralling, if not appalling, account of my meteoric career in the financial world.

I had suggested that I felt I was being caught in the middle of a great financial squeeze when someone offered to buy me Peel-Elder stock at $13 a share. I smelled something peculiar and promised I'd try to get to the bottom of it.

I haven't, but I hate to part with those twenty-five shares of Peel-Elder. I've had them as long as I've had my wife.

They are all that's left of my second and final savage attack on the stock market. My first was rather deflating, as I mentioned last week.

But the second time around, I didn't take any chances. It was only when a trusted stock-broker told me Eldridge Mines was going to be the hottest thing on the market, that I carefully bought 1,000 shares. They cost me $330. The broker was a former prisoner-of-war, so could be trusted implicitly.

The stock held firm, went up about five cents a share in a week, and this time there actually was a producing gold mine. I reckoned I was in Biscuit City, as we say in these parts.

What nobody told me was that there was more money in gravel than there was in gold, in those days, and for many years to come. I should have bought a gravel pit.

I have previously related how that 1,000 shares of Eldridge has shrunk to 25 shares of Peel-Elder, so I won't bore you. But I did learn one of the inevitable, or so it seems to me, laws of stocks.

Every time a company gets bigger, I have fewer stocks. Eldridge expanded, became known as Elder, with a lot of new capital and great prospects in the offing. I was told that for my 1,000 shares of that cheap little old Eldridge, I would get 120 shares of this tremendous new Elder.

There was no money in gold mining, apparently, so Elder became Peel-Elder and got heavily into real estate. Assets increased, profits rose, and Smiley wound up with something like 12½ shares of Peel-Elder.

There was one halcyon period when Peel-Elder went up to more than $20 a share. I was tempted to sell. I could have come out only about $100 in the hole, after twenty years. Not bad, that. But I hung in there.

Then, about a year ago, Peel-Elder, with a flamboyant burst of something or other, informed me that, as a loyal shareholder, I could have two shares for every one I had.

I don't remember the details. I think you had to be a white Anglican with some teeth missing, a bad back, and no more or less than two children, neither of them self-supporting. Something like that. Anyway, I qualified.

That's how I wound up with 25 shares of Peel-Elder.

And now along comes an impressive brochure from an outfit called Hambro Canada Limited with an offer to buy at $13 a share. In February and March I could have sold for about $14.

Hambro is a Canadian affiliate of Hambros Ltd., a London, England, based international merchant banker, with a good many fingers in a good many pies.

Hambro Canada Ltd. already owns almost 50 per cent of Peel-Elder, but wants to buy the rest.

Most of the directors and officers of Peel-Elder are also directors or officers of Hambro Canada Limited.

Are you confused? Me too. It's pretty obviously a takeover of an established Canadian corporation by a British-based corporation, with somebody probably about to make a pot of bullion in the process.

And here's something else that puzzles me. After thirty-odd years of watching Peel-Elder grow from a sickly little gold mine into a husky corporation, and watching my share of the cake diminish from a small wedge to a crumb, I suddenly get two whacking great dividend cheques from Peel-Elder. One for $2.94, the other for $1.50.

Wouldn't you be wary when you'd not received a dividend for three decades and suddenly got two in one mail?

The offer to buy me out, from Hambro Canada Ltd., states rather sternly that the offer will expire July 23rd.

If I accept the offer, I will receive $325. The stock cost me $330 thirty years ago. And Trudeau would probably want a capital gains tax if I sold.

Well, there we are. I started out in a quandary and I've ended in a quagmire. I wish I'd put that original $330 into a couple of beach lots which would now be worth $20,000. I wish I'd gone into pig farming. I wish I could win a sweepstake.

However, that's the way it goes with us chaps who play the market. We accept the fact that we're compulsive gamblers and take our losses with a stiff lower lip.

But I won't sell that stock. Let them fight it out, the corporate bums.

Federal Deputy of the Commons announces

Two new industries for the Drummondville area

An important press conference was held Monday, August 12, 1974 at Skiroule Ltee, manufacturer of Skiroule snowmobiles. More than 25 journalists attended this conference and it was a success in every respect. The conference opened with a word of welcome from Mr. Peter Hill, Vice-President of Marketing and Mr. Guy Talbot, Vice-President of Manufacturing and Research. They expressed the joy and enthusiasm on behalf of all the employees at Skiroule.

Mr. Karol then spoke to the press, confirming that the transaction between The Coleman Company, Inc., had been completed and that H.M.K. Manufacturing was formed in order to obtain the shares of Skiroule Ltee.

Following, Mr Yvon Pinard Federal Deputy of the House of Commons, spoke Mr Pinard declared that he was delighted with the sale of Skiroule. He also said that they had always thought highly of Skiroule and that he followed Skiroule with great interest even before he was elected to the House of Commons. Mr Pinard created a certain atmosphere of excitement by announcing to the journalists that in addition to the good news regarding Skiroule, he would also announce shortly the installation of two new industries in the Drummondville area.

A question and answer period then followed and Mr. Karol informed the journalists that he would be pleased to answer all questions.

Q. Mr. Karol, why did you purchase Skiroule?

A. When I heard that Coleman had decided to dispose of Skiroule, I immediately became interested. I had already been looking for an additional enterprise and I studied the operations of Skiroule and began negotiations with The Coleman Company, Inc. to purchase this firm.

Q. Mr Karol, do you believe in the snowmobile industry?

A. Certainly, I do, and I am convinced that with a sound administration, a company like Skiroule can be very profitable.

Q. Did you know Skiroule before beginning negotiations with Coleman?

A. Chance can sometimes do a lot of things. I am a snowmobile fan myself and I own four, two of which are Skiroules, and I think that Skiroule is the best snowmobile on the market.

Q. Mr. Karol, do you intend to make Skiroule a public company and put shares on the market?

A. When a company issues shares, it is usually to obtain capital and actually my financial situation does not oblige me to. Thus, it is not my intention to make Skiroule a public company.

Q. Will Skiroule fabricate 1975 model snowmobiles immediately?

A. Yes, we will have 1975 models on the market.

Q. When you say 1975 models, do you mean 1974 models modified and put back on the market as being 1975 models?

A. No, absolutely not. The 1975 models will totally be built before the winter season.

Q. Mr. Karol, how many dealers does the Skiroule Co. have?

A. We have between 700 and 750 dealers including the dealers belonging to the distributor network.

Q. Mr. Karol, do you plan on changing your product line, and what are your plans regarding this?

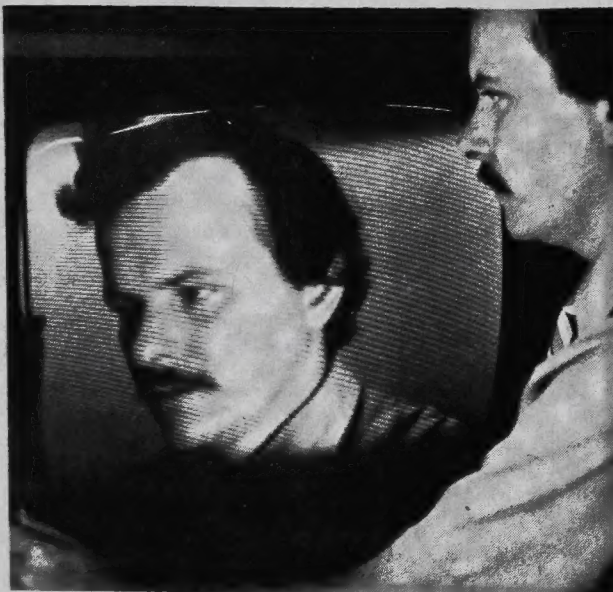

A. Our primary objective is to make and sell snowmobiles but with the aggressive dealer network we have, it would be easy for us to put other motorized products on the market.

Q. What motorized products?

A. We are entering into negotiations with two American manufacturers and an European firm to obtain their collaboration in fabricating motorized products. We cannot state precisely yet the exact nature of what will be produced at our Wickham plant.

Wow! What a fish. They're catching the big ones in the Highlands of Haliburton. Harry Milanowski of Willowdale, a guest at Drag Lake Resort at Haliburton, is seen showing off the big fish he caught in Drag Lake on Monday morning, July 29. The fish weighed in at 32 lbs and it is 37 inches long and 24 inches around the girth. For the information of all you fishermen this lake trout was caught with a Rapala lure.

Centennial tribute to Minden churches

By Jane Fairfield

For over 100 years Minden has been faithfully served by its Rectors and Ministers allotted to the forested country. Reverend Burt of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Rector for over 14 years, built the Rectory and donated the cemetery, and left three daughters to mother the following generations.

Mrs Wm. Fielding - "J.P." - was organist in the Methodist Church and choir leader for 30 years; Mrs Robert Gainor, whose daughter was organist in St. Paul's for 40 years, and Mrs. R. M. Baker, editor of our Minden Echo; these have been followed by equally self-sacrificing labourers for Christ, whose lives have left a shining path. Reverend Bonner, whose salary was $200 per year, rode horseback to visit one and all backwoods' settlers. These counted not the cost.

The "Marys and Marthas" have kept the fires of self sacrifice alight, sending their sons to die for Freedom and rearing daughters to become mothers of coming generations. There is no bereaved member of the community who has not felt the loving touch of these faithful few. Without these few, churches would not survive.

You cannot drive through Minden without seeing the miniature cathedral standing amidst green fields beside the flowing stream of Gull River. St. Paul's was built by Williams, a carpenter who drove daily from Gull Lake and often worked with gifted hands alone, donating his labour as his share of his church's cost. The beautiful window, beginning with that of 'Christ knocking at the doors', filling the Altar wall, is carried throughout each wall in memory of our earliest pioneers for God's stewardship. As you enter the open door of the church, one is enveloped by the feeling that all within are remembering - "This is my Second Commandment, which is like unto the First".

Standing in the open door the worshiper hears the sweet tones of the Carillon from the United Church from the hills across town, ringing out the words of sacred music:

"The Church's one foundation

Is Jesus Christ the Lord,
She is His new creation
By waters and the word.
From Heaven He came and sought her
To be his Holy Bride,
With his own blood he bought her

And for her Life He died."

This is 1974 and in addition to these churches, we have at our village's entrance the commodious Roman Catholic church. Across the bridge there is the equally active little church of Pentecostal work; and also one built by the dedicated man who preaches in the centre of town, "Gospel Hall".

Minden, then, has five happy congregations.

Energy Board

Review of Hydro policies and practices

The Ontario Energy Board's review of Ontario Hydro policies and practices finally came to an end in Toronto Wednesday, August 14, after more than six months of public hearings spread over eight months, starting last January 21.

Hydro counsel Pierre Genest summarized the dilemma faced by the large public utility. He said "In endeavoring to supply low cost power, Hydro must live within constraints that are imposed by contemporary conditions. It faces the necessity of financing a very substantial expansion program which it judges necessary to meet the demands of the people of Ontario for power in the decades ahead."

He said, "It faces the necessity of doing that at a time of unprecedented inflation in all sectors of the economy and in particular in fuel prices, manpower costs and material costs; at a time when capital shortages are becoming more acute and at a time when concern relating to the environment and the impact of operations such as Hydro's on the quality of life are also becoming more acute."

Mr. Genest said Hydro is bound by law to recover its costs from its customers. It has no choice but to pass on to the customer the increases in the cost of its operations.

"Ontario Hydro's mandate is to serve the public interest. It has no shareholders except the public."

The hearings were in three phases: Phase One reviewed Hydro's $16 billion system expansion program; Phase Two dealt with Hydro's financial policies and objectives and the last phase dealt with Hydro's proposal for a 15 per cent rate increase in 1975.

In his closing argument, Mr. Genest vigorously attacked statements made two days earlier by Robert W. Macaulay, Board counsel and a former Minister of Energy and resources, concerning what he described as Hydro's attitude towards inflation.

Mr. Genest said, "Mr. Macaulay's argument totally confuses the functions which Hydro has on the one hand of making forecasts -- involving judgements as to what is the most probable thing that will happen -- and on the other hand of doing its utmost to stem the tide of inflation by adopting policies calculated to that end, a responsibility which I have no hesitation in saying we accept."

He quoted Hydro Chairman George Gathercole who had testified previously, "we are not content to be a piece of floating debris on the seas of inflation.

"We agree that something must be done about it. But Ontario Hydro cannot operate in isolation. The permanent cure to inflation, if there is such a thing, will come by the concerted action of federal and provincial governments, supported by industry and labour."

OEB chairman, A.B. Jackson, Q.C., and board members Dr. W. W. Stevenson, economist and A.J.C. Leighton, P. Eng., now have until September 1 to make their findings and recommendations known to the Energy Minister Darcy McKeough.

This means sifting through 2 million words of evidence on nearly 14,000 pages of transcript, bound in 98 volumes, along with 600 exhibits of evidence and submissions of more than 20 intervenors.

Phil Stata pitches a no-hitter

West Guilford are the first winners of the Haliburton Invitation Bantam softball Tournament. The tournament which was played at West Guilford on Saturday, August 17 was a great success with some great ball games for the fans who attended.

In the first game West Guilford slaughtered Lochlin by the score of 19-0 with Dwight Sisson going all the way on the mound for the winners.

In the second game Lochlin went down to defeat again at the hands of Camp White Pine.

The third game was the best game of the day as West Guilford finally nosed out Camp White Pine by the close score of 3-2. The large crowd of fans in attendance were treated to a real close battle that kept them on the edge of their seats throughout the entire game.

Phil Stata on the mound for West Guilford pitched a no hitter in the final game of the day as West Guilford had to much hitting power for Camp White Pine and came away with a 5-0 decision.

The winning West Guilford team won the Mark Vasey trophy and we understand that this will be an annual event.

Four students become fire fighters

Four students employed by the Ministry to conduct lake surveys on the Kawartha Lakes recently found themselves doing duty as fire fighters. The fire they were fighting took place on a 17 foot motor boat on Chemung Lake. Although the vessel did burn almost to the water line, the crew kept the hull from sinking and towed it into shore.

The fire started from an explosion in the area of the inboard engine compartment. Luckily, there were no injuries and the occupants escaped into the lake to be picked up by a passing boat.

Fires and other unexpected events are a possibility on every boat trip. Check out the fire extinguishers and life jackets on your boat now - our lake survey crew may not be handy when you run into problems.

Surprise Party

Mr and Mrs John Gibson of 363 Adelaide W. Oshawa, were honoured recently with a surprise barbecue on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

Fifty relatives and friends gathered to extend their congratulations.

Their daughter Janet and sons John, Jeffery and Leonard were hostess and hosts for the occasion.

The happy couple were recipients of many beautiful gifts and cards and two money trees. A combination eight track stereo tape recorder and record player and was presented by their immediate family and friends, Chris Macebulski, Mina Fairgreive, Dennis Goldie of Oshawa, and Miss Irene McCrosson of Peterboro.

Camp Algonquin

By Ross Beagan
Information Officer

This facility is being operated for the Ministry of Natural Resources by the Y.M.C.A. of Metropolitan Toronto on a trial basis for two or three years.

The program differs from other resident camp programs in that it focuses upon the special natural values of places like Algonquin Park and takes advantage of interpretive services already available in the park. The experiences gleaned from this experiment will assist the Ministry in designing future youth camp programs in Algonquin Park. These will be developed away from major visitor use areas and will be independent of other public visitor service programs.

Temporary trailer accommodations are being provided on the shores of Whitefish Lake during the experiment. Camp Algonquin is designed to accommodate 56 less-advantaged twelve to sixteen year old boys and girls during each of four, two-week camping periods in July and August.

Candidates are drawn from urban areas such as Toronto, Hamilton, London, and Windsor. The Ministry of Social and Family Services recommend candidates for Camp Algonquin on the basis of interest and need. Children otherwise unable to enjoy a wilderness experience, are provided a respite from their urban environment.

Using
electricity wisely
isn't just a matter of avoiding waste.

Being watchful to avoid the frittering away of kilowatthours is everyone's concern, in the interest of economy and conservation of valuable energy resources.

But for some people, living in older homes with outdated wiring, restricted use of appliances is not always a matter of choice. They do not have sufficient circuits to serve normal needs without resorting to 'octopus' outlets and extension cords. The result: overloading and blowing of fuses.

These conditions also tend to diminish the performance of appliances and shortens their life.

Inadequate wiring is not only inconvenient, it can be a safety hazard. If you have any doubts about the capacity of your home's wiring have it checked by a qualified Electrical Contractor. Then, use electricity wisely... and safely.

New method to treat sewage is developed

A new method of sewage treatment, developed by Environment Ontario, to improve phosphorus removal in recreational areas is working out well in Muskoka, according to Paul Cockburn, the Ministry's central region director.

Seasonal retention lagoons are widely used for waste treatment in the Muskoka area, with 12 in operation there, Mr. Cockburn said. In these lagoons, bacterial action takes place and undesirable or unhealthy components settle to form a sludge.

When the lagoon is discharged - once or twice a year in the spring or fall - the water effluent is of relatively high quality, he explained. "But a major drawback of lagoon treatment is that phosphorus levels in the water are not reduced properly by this treatment method. Phosphorus is a plant nutrient and a major contributor to excessive weed growth in recreational waters."

The new method developed by the Ministry's Research Branch is batch chemical treatment. It consists of selecting a chemical, from laboratory tests on the actual lagoon contents, which will effectively reduce the phosphorus level to meet the Ministry's guidelines of 1 mg/l.

The lagoon owner is informed of the quantity and type of chemical required and is responsible for the purchase. He must also provide the labour and necessary equipment.

Ministry staff are responsible for recommending the proper chemical and for supervising the actual treatment and the discharge.

The chemical, usually dry powder aluminum sulphate (alum), is mixed into a solution and is evenly dispersed and mixed into the lagoon contents through the propeller of an outboard motor boat. It causes the very fine sewage particles to grow heavier and larger and sink to the bottom.

The treated lagoon contents are generally permitted to be discharged the next day. "At this point the water discharged is crystal clear."

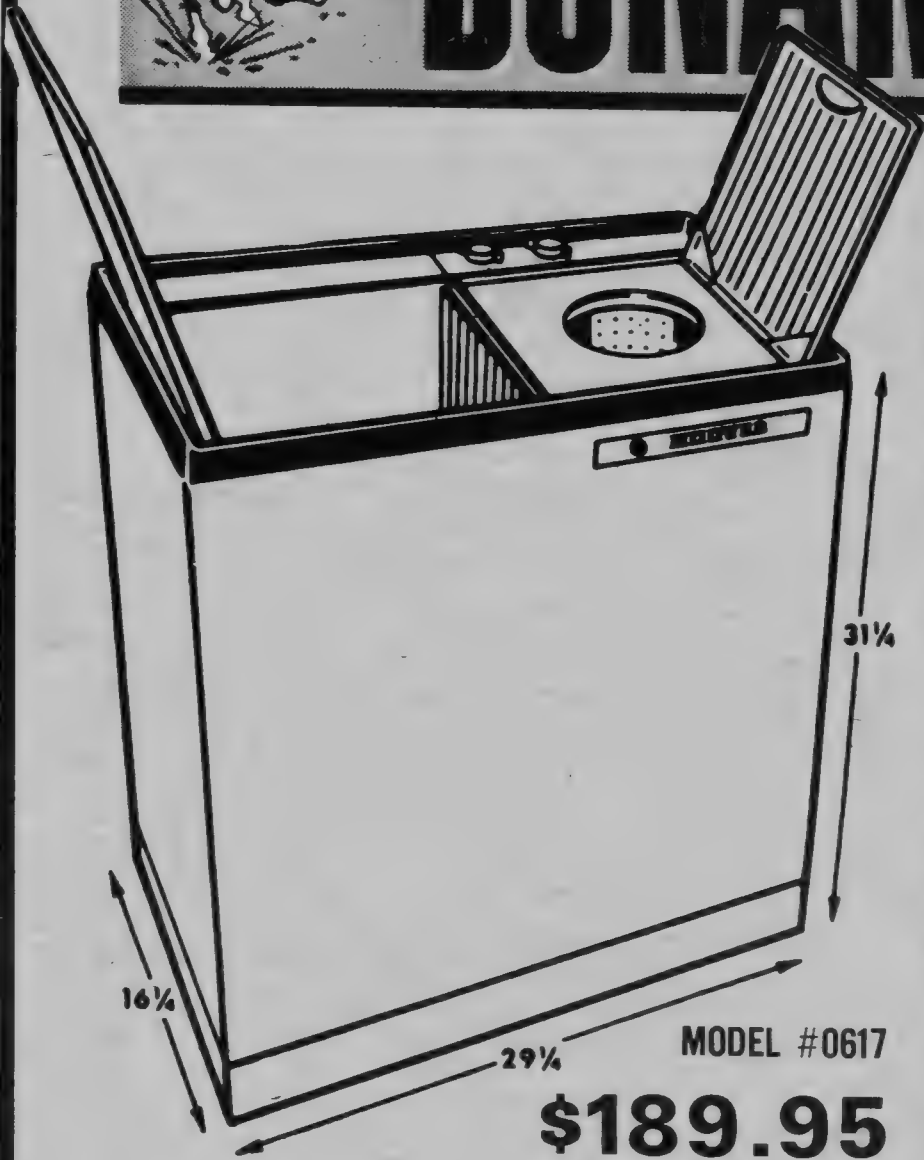

Mr. Cockburn said the chemical and bacterial results of samples collected prior to and following treatment indicate that a high quality of effluent is produced in all cases, meeting or exceeding Ministry guidelines.

By this fall, all seasonal retention lagoons in Muskoka will be required to use batch chemical treatment in their lagoons prior to discharge.

Eight installations were successfully treated and discharged with the new method this spring: Bracebridge Municipal System, Camp Ramah in Canada, Canadian Keswick Conference, Ontario Pioneer Junior Camp, Cleveland's House, Aston Villa Resort, Camp Wabanaki and Muskoka Sands Inn.

Faith that works

The New Testament concept of faith goes beyond the Jewish use of the word in their life and actions. Indeed their faith was of such a nature that it brought forth deeds that proved their understanding of One true God and His word and promises. New Testament faith goes far beyond this basic requirement of accepting the being of God as a fact and the revelation. He made of Himself in past days. Calvary added a new dimension to faith. A mere mental faith in this event does not produce a faith that works or in other words one that brings forth a change of thought, life and deeds. The Apostles were quite insistent that if you claim to be a Christian then act like one. True faith results in a clean life. One cannot claim to believe right and live wrong. The literal application of this truth would light a flame of revival in professing Christendom and transform the average congregation and community. To check in at a religious meeting once a week is not enough evidence that one's faith is working.

Can faith be dead? Yes indeed if it stands alone. It is quite possible to believe every precept of the Christian creed and still not have faith that saves. Faith that saves is bound to embrace the instructions of the Word and never leans on works alone for salvation. True faith produces works. It is a total committal of oneself to Christ for salvation, for time and eternity. In John 6:28,29 we find people asking Jesus "What shall we do, that we might work the works of God"? The Lord answered,

"This is the work of God that ye believe on Him whom He hath sent". Indeed such meant a movement to Christ and a forsaking of the old life of sin and self and then a following after Him.

James 2:24 says "not by faith only" because he is thinking of mere head belief which has no saving value. Paul says "by faith only" because he is thinking to the faith that works, that rests on Christ, and issues forth in good works. This is the kind of faith both James and Paul looked for in real Christians with no other works having to be added as security for salvation, it is a matter of real faith, not works.

SCRIPTURE MEDITATION: Even so faith, if it hath not works is dead, being alone. James 2:17

Hicks family celebrates reunion

The Eighth Family Reunion of the Isiah Hicks Family was held at the Lochlin Community Centre on Sunday August 4 with one hundred and thirty-seven attending.

Registration began at 11 a.m. and at 12.30 all enjoyed the Salad Buffet with lots of goodies for dessert.

The afternoon was spent in races - games - horseshoe - ballgame - and a hayride for 47 children.

The winners of the Horseshoe were Men's - Ted Austin and Ken Clement; Women's - Betty Hicks and Yvonne Newell; Teenage Girl's - Cheryl Newell and Margie Newton; Teenage Boy's - Roger Hicks and Kevin Newell.

The Special prizes were awarded by Betty Hicks.

Oldest Man: Moss Minaker of Lochlin, Oldest Lady: Mrs. Mabel Minaker of Lochlin, Youngest: There was no one under one year, Couple coming the farthest: John and Maureen Scott of Granton Ont.

Anniversary closest to Dec. 3rd: Bill and Donna Hartin of Haliburton, Teenager with Birthday closest to Oct.

13th: Jon Hicks of Minden, Largest Immediate Family on Grounds: Pete and Wanda Robinson of R. R. No. 1 Minden with five children.

It is felt this was one of the best reunions yet and the weatherman was fairly co-operative and the couple of showers that did come brought the crowd closer together, (in more ways than one).

The executive for 1974 was President: Gerald Hicks; Secretary: Olive Carpenter and Treasurer: Yvonne Newell.

Five employees of Curry Motors Limited at Haliburton are a bit richer today after they cashed in on a ticket that was the winner at the Annual Haliburton Rotary Carnival which was held at Haliburton on August 7. Their prize was a 1974 Javelin. The five people namely Dale Emmerson, John McNeil, Len Salvatori, Mary Pearsell and Lois Whittaker each put up a $1.00 and Dale Emmerson's name was listed on the stub on ticket number 1140. We understand that the car will be sold and the money received from the sale will be split five ways. Good luck to the winners. The five winners of the car are shown in front of Coneybeare Motors. Car Draw chairman Lloyd Coneybeare is shown presenting the keys of the car to Dale Emmerson whose name was on the ticket. The other people who were in on the ticket from left to right, John McNeil, Mary Pearsell, Lois Whittaker and Len Salvatori.

Notice

The WEST GUILFORD MAJORETTES will be known as The HALIBURTON HIGHLANDS MAJORETTES from now on, but will continue to wear West Guilford ribbons until the end of their parades this fall. I would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for receiving them so well in all the parades (Minden, Harcourt, Haliburton and Wilberforce) and I know we will also receive a warm welcome in Kinmount and our own West Guilford. I would also like to say a special thanks to my Dad, Mr Harry Fountain of Stanhope Sheet Metal for transporting the majorettes to all these parades. Mrs. Victoria Packard, R. R. # 1, Haliburton.

WILL DO BABYSITTING in my own home. Phone 457-1363.

Thank-You

The family of the late James Francis McMahon would like to express their sincere thanks and appreciation to their friends, relatives and neighbours for all acts of kindness and sympathy cards during their loss of a dear husband and father. A special thanks to Rev. Heather Hines, the U.C.W. of Tory Hill Church and John Welch & Son Funeral Home.

The Staff and children of Stanhope Recreation Centre would like to thank the following for generous donations of time and/or equipment: Marvin and Belinda Brown, Peter Brown, Emmerson Lumber, Carnarvon Lumber, Haliburton Lumber, Gull River Buildall, Oakview Lodge, Bob's T.V. & Hardware Mr. Norm Barry, Kinsmen Club of Minden, Loreale Lodge, Cherokee Lodge, Mr. Fred Prentice, Mr and Mrs Curl, Mrs J. Todd, Camp Kandalore and Chief Kitpow Ballantynes Store, Haliburton Forest and Wildlife Reserve, Dave Woodall, L'il Buckaroo Riding Stable, Mr Jim Moore, and Mr Sinc Nesbitt. We feel that, with all the help we have received, our project has surely been a community affair.

Stanhope Recreation Centre is an Opportunities For Youth Project run by two local and one summer resident young people of Stanhope Township. Children ages 7 - 12 from Stanhope Township have participated in an active summer programme. Future projects of this kind will be encouraged, as we have been, but the participation of the children and adults of the Stanhope Community in a worthwhile endeavour. Thankyou, from Denise Pettes, Cathy MacBrien, Dave Mann and the kids.

Thank-You

Our sincere thanks to all our friends and neighbours for the many messages of condolence, flower arrangements and numerous other expressions of sympathy following the death of our Mother, Jennie Shaw. Our thanks to the Rev. Don Emmerson for his comforting words and to the John Welch and Son funeral directors, for their competent service.

A sincere Thank You to my friends and neighbours for your prayers, letters, cards, phone calls and gifts during my recent stay in Toronto hospital. Your thoughtfulness and good wishes are much appreciated. Iris Adamson.

In appreciation of the many good wishes and remembrances received from friends during my recent hospitalization. They mean so much when one is confined and help a great deal getting over the hurdles. The kindness and consideration of the doctors and Haliburton Hospital staff requires an extra special thank you. Dale Anthes.

home on the Lochlin Road, on August 7, 1974, in her 82nd year. She was born in Snowdon Township, February 11, 1893 to Mr. and Mrs. William Ferguson. She is survived by daughters Pearl (Mrs Fred Barry) and Shirley (Mrs Alton Hughes), sons Charlie and Bob, one sister, Lulu (Mrs Fed Milligan of Toronto), thirteen grandchildren and six great grandchildren. She was predeceased by her husband Joseph Frederick Shaw, son Donald and daughter Ruby.

In Memoriam

McNEIL - In loving memory of Earl McNeil who passed away August 26, 1970. In that city of light on the hills far away, Where the sun never sets nor the flowers decay, He is with his Redeemer, free from sorrow and pain, And in God's own time, we shall meet him again. Dearly remembered by wife Reta and family.

In Memoriam

GILBERT - In loving memory of our dear son and brother, Byrnell, who left us so suddenly eight years ago September 1st, in his 21st year. Your resting place we visit And put flowers there with care.

But no one knows the heartache When we turn and leave you there. It only takes a little space To write how much we miss you But it will take the rest of our lives To forget the night we lost you. Sadly missed and fondly remembered by Mum, Dad and Family.
